Public Participation

1693 PC David Stevenson and PCSO Paula Martin from the safer neighbourhood team attended the meeting to update members on activities in Duffield. A number of break-ins at business premises has been recorded, however work by the crime prevention team on improving security and alarm systems had been undertaken. Youth problem involving the consumption of alcohol had been reported, and a trace back of purchase had show a these had been purchased legally but passed on. Overall however there were less than in previous twelve months.

The CCTV camera on town street had gone live on 1st June 2009, and was monitored at Bilborough. Councillor Short agreed to establish who would be responsible for the camera and recorded information for future reference should it be required.

Attempts to engage young people in summer activities, such a fishing had been unsuccessful, however they had been informed that sporting events were to be held at the nailers ground should they wish to attend.

Members thanked PC Stevenson and PCSO Martin and invited them to attend the Parish Council meeting when their shift timetable permitted.
